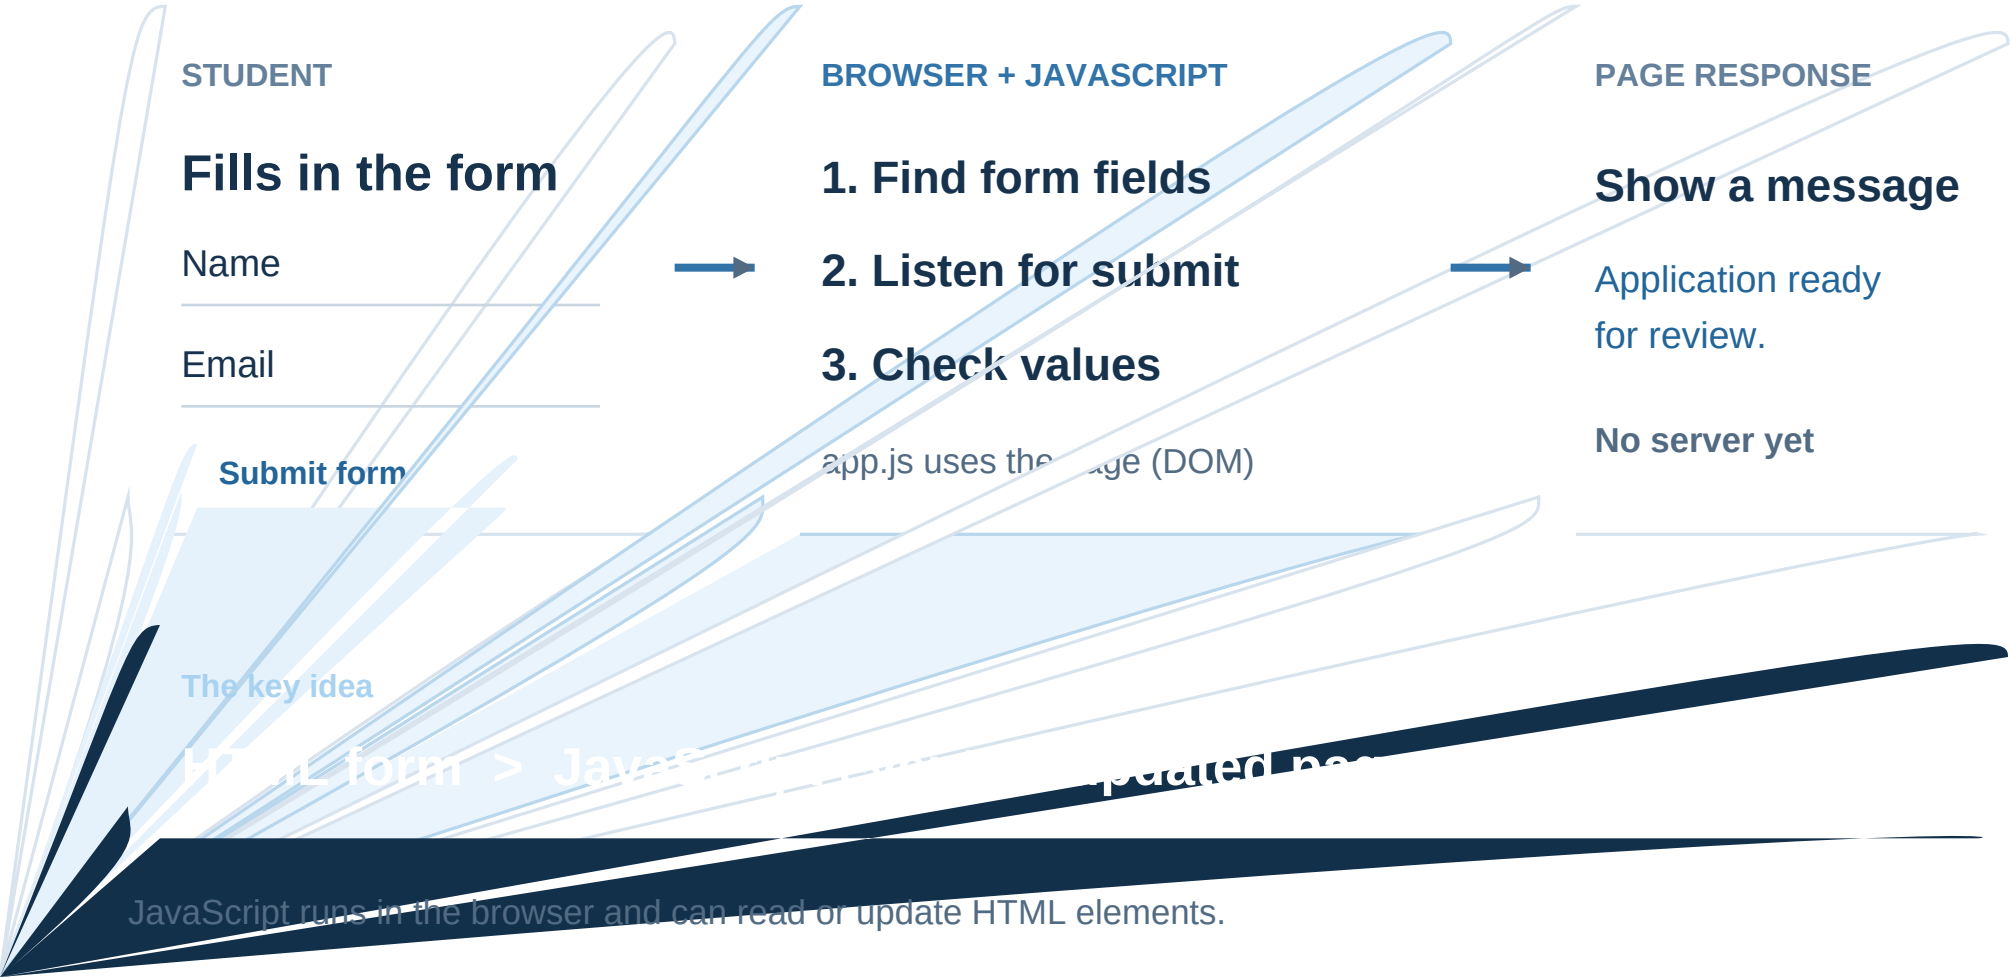
What is JavaScript?

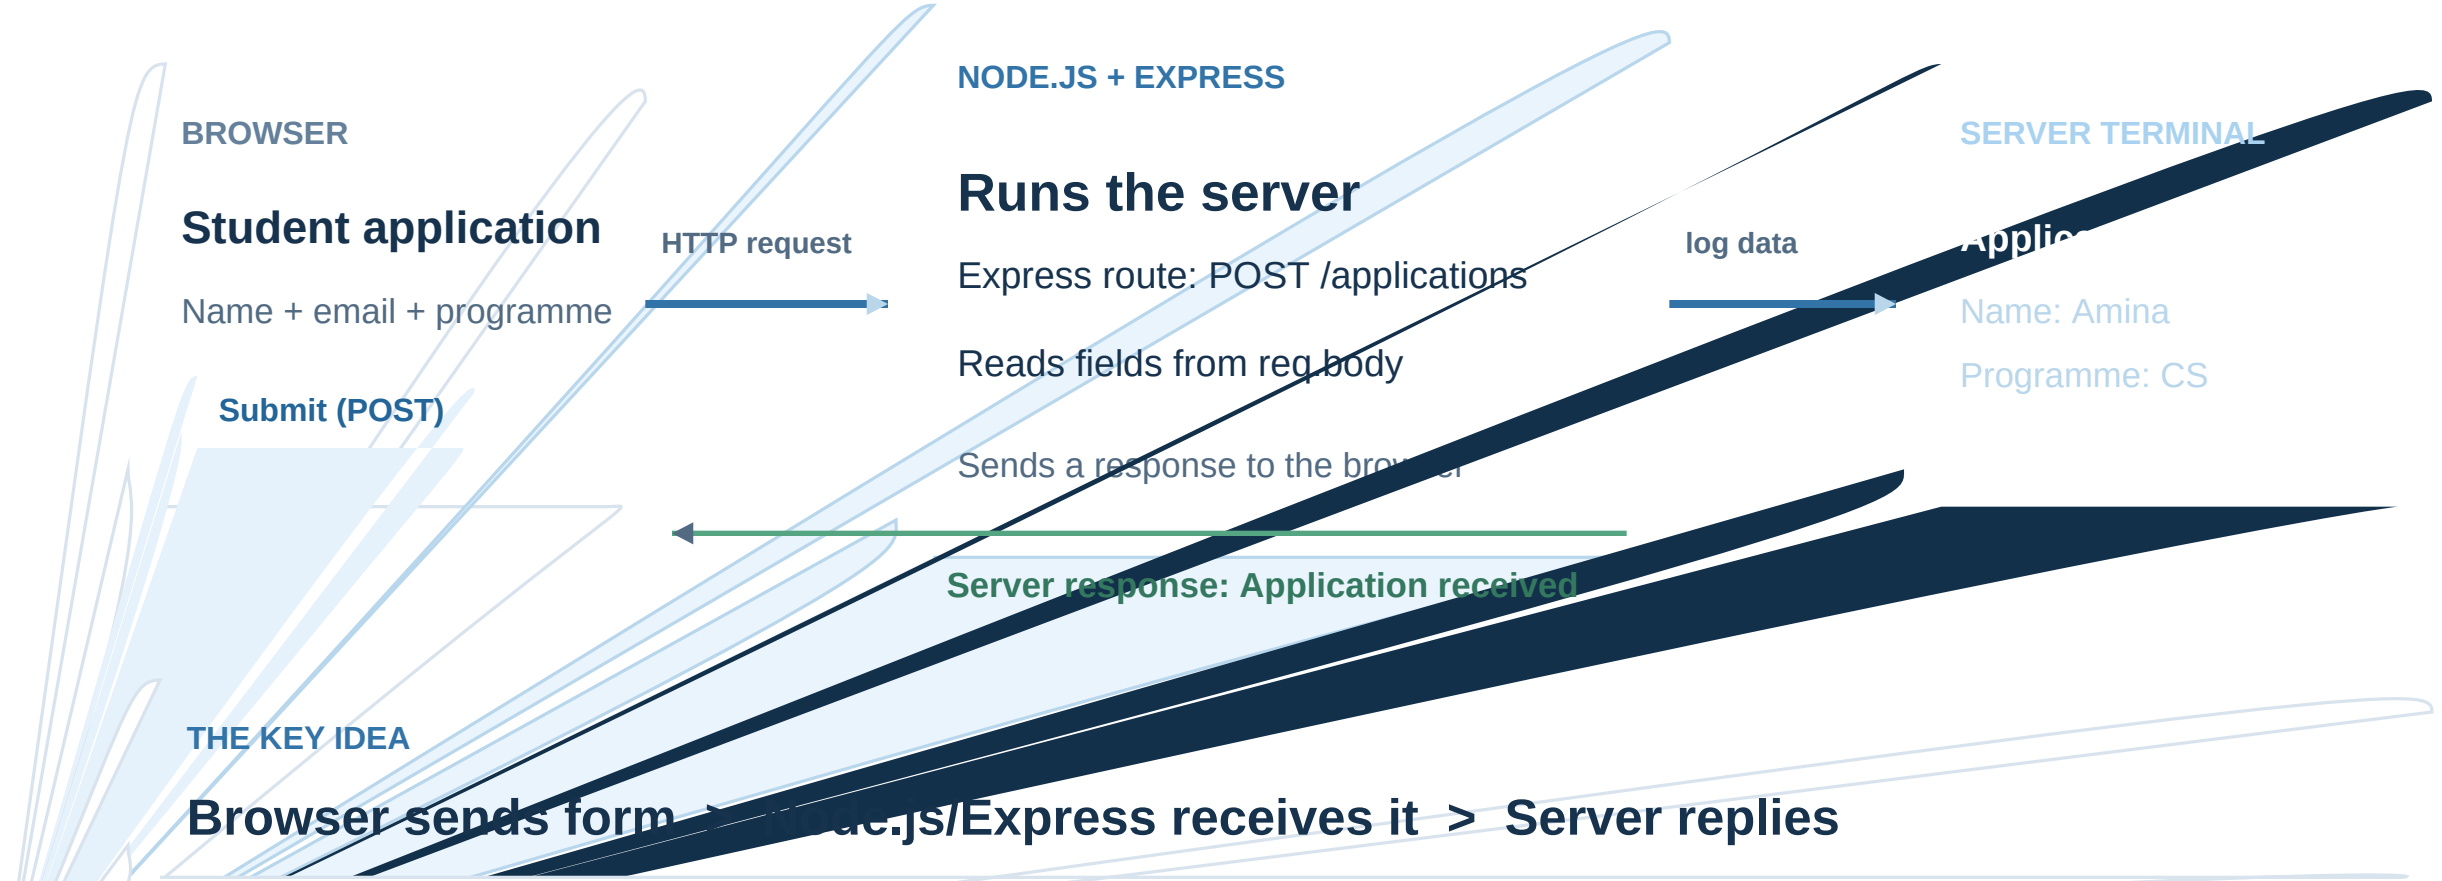
JavaScript makes the student application form respond to the student.



JavaScript runs in the browser and can read or update HTML elements.

What is Node.js?

Node.js runs JavaScript on the computer to receive the form submission.



THE KEY IDEA

Browser sends form > Node.js/Express receives it > Server replies

This classroom example prints submitted values; it does not save them to a database.